EIGHTY MEN MADE MEMBERS RECENTLY

Both DKE and KDR Take Twelve, BK Ten and ASP Seven

Middlebury's seven national fraternities observed the initiation of new members with formal banquets at their respective houses on the past two Sundays.

Following the regular formal initiation ceremonies, in which eighty men were initiated into the Greek letter societies, the banquets provided an occasion for speeches of welcome to the initiates and a main address on some topic of general interest by a guest speaker.

Alpha Sigma Phi observed the initiation of seven new members February 14. Dr. L. S. Walker, a graduate of Middlebury in the class of 1930, addressed the group. Mr. Edgar J. Wiley presided over the banquet as toastmaster. The initiates were Paul G. Cushman, John M. Gale, Robert H. Grant, Volney G. Parks, Clifford H. Philo, Kenneth L. Temple and Patrick W. Vartuli, all of the class of 1940.

Ten initiates were honored at a banquet held at the Beta Kappa house February 14, Prof. Harry M. Fife talked on the topic "Reign of Mediocrity". The new members were Royden N. Aston and Herman N. Benner of the class of 1938, and William A. Cassidy, Lester T. Davis, Edward R. Loftus, James E. Morrow, Wayne M. Nelson, Edward F. Ormsby, James C. Smith 2nd and Donald T. Spore of the class of 1940.

Dance Planned By New York Alumni

Undergraduates to Attend Supper Formal at Town Hall Club during Holiday

Plans were announced this week for a formal supper-dance during the Easter recess for all Middlebury alumni and undergraduates living in the vicinity of New York city.

The affair will be held at the Town Hall club, 123 West 43 street, from 9 until 2 o'clock Saturday March 20. Supper will be served at midnight. The orchestra has not as yet been selected, but will be announced within the next two weeks.

The committee, which is headed by Natt L. Divoll Jr., and Charles Woodman '35, hopes to recreate the atmosphere of a typical Middlebury formal weekend. Chaperons will include President and Mrs. Paul D. Moody and several members of the faculty.

The committee requests that reservations be made in advance to either of the chairmen. Subscription will be $3.50 a couple or $2 for individuals.

Approval of final plans by the New York alumni association is expected this week. Notice of the event will be sent out by Mr. Edgar J. Wiley, alumni secretary.

German Club Will Meet To Discuss Constitution

The regular meeting of the German club will be held this evening at 7:30 p. m. in Pearsons social hall.

It will be a very important meeting since the constitution is to be discussed with the possibility of complete revision. It will incorporate new sections and proposals to be voted on and approved by the members.

One proposition to come before the club provides for the election of a program chairman to take care of entertainment at future meetings.

Movie reels of views taken in a Berlin museum will be shown after the regular business meeting. All members are urged to attend.

Carnival Weekend Concluded Sunday

Winter Sports Competition And Costume Dance Are Events of Annual Holiday

Middlebury's fourth annual winter carnival was opened Thursday evening with the coronation pageant held at the women's skating rink.

Flanked by twenty costumed attendants, Randall W. Hoffmann '37 and Janet Gray '37 were crowned king and queen by President Paul D. Moody. The brilliantly lighted ice castle furnished a background for the king and queen as they took their places on the ice throne. Following the coronation there was an exhibition of figure skating to music consisting of group waltzes and solos done by professional skaters from Rutland. L. Joyce Godley 38 and Doris M. Fife '37 presented a waltz on skates as the concluding feature of the program.

Charles Barnet and his 10 piece orchestra furnished music for the costume ball which was held in McCullough gymnasium after the coronation ceremony. Valeria E. Halligan '38 was awarded the prize for the prettiest dress which was copied after an old fashioned model. The best looking men's costume was worn by Jean P. Labouchere '37. Robert W. Robinson '37 was given a prize for his original representation of a candy cane. Honorable mentions went to Kenneth M. Kinsey '39 and Doris E. Keffer '40, Richard M. Barclay '40 and Marion E. Wishart '37, Elizabeth A. Dunning '39, and A. Irene McGaughy '40. Friday afternoon the women's jubilee was held on chapel hill. Three mixed teams, the red, yellow and green, were made up from girls from the University of Vermont, Mount Holyoke, Simmons, Connecticut state, Jackson, Barnard, Skidmore, and Wheaton. Obstacle races and a hockey game played on skis and snowshoes with a volleyball and brooms were included on the program. Fol-

Art Collection To Be Exhibited Here

Survey of Modern Painting During Past Fifty Years Shown by Reproductions

An exhibition of modern painting in color reproductions, will be on view at Forest hall recreation room from Monday until March 15, first shown in the summer of 1932 at the Museum of Modern Art in New York.

The show was assembled in Europe by Alfred H. Barr, Jr., director of the Museum of Modern Art. The exhibition presents a brief survey of modern painting for the past fifty years. The color reproductions are the finest available. The observer can familiarize himself here with great works of art that he might otherwise never have the opportunity to see.

A brief account of each painter is given on the printed label for every picture. Wall placards will explain historical movements and the various terms "expressionism", "cubism", "futurism", "abstract design", and "super-realism". These comments prepared by Alfred H. Barr, Jr., have also been published in a catalog called "A Brief Survey of Modern Painting". The catalog will be for sale at the exhibition for all those desiring to possess one.

Among the painters represented in the exhibition are Daumier, Corot, Manet, Homer, Renoir, Cezanne, Gauguin, Van Gogh, Matisse, Dorain, Utrillo, Bonnard, Laurencin and Roualt.

Women's Debating Team Completes New Schedule

The schedule of encounters for the women's debating team has been made up for the months of March and April.

The next debate will be here with William and Mary college on the question, resolved: that congress should be empowered to fix maximum hours and minimum wages for industry. On April 8, the team will meet New York State Teacher's college in Albany for a round-table discussion of the same question.

At some time during the third or fourth week of April, the team will debate at Upsala, East Orange, New Jersey, and in May, with the University of Vermont, at Burlington.

Forum Is Affiliated With Peace Group

Club Receives Summary of International Affairs and Occurrences Bi-Monthly

The Middlebury women's forum has affiliated with the International Relations clubs of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Through this membership, the forum receives every two weeks a complete summary of international events. The club's charter has already been received, and is kept for examination in the recreation room of Forest hall where the regular meetings are held.

It is the aim of the forum to build up a permanent library on subjects of current international affairs, and so far eight books have been bought as a foundation. Included among them are two by Childs, "Propaganda and Dictatorship" and "Sweden the Middle Way", "On the Rim of the Abyss" by Shotwell, "A Place in the Sun" by Clark, and "American Diplomacy" by Williams. These books may be taken out by forum members for two week periods free of charge. Arne L. Bulkeley '38 was chosen librarian.

"Broadside", a statement by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler regarding the International Relations Club has also been obtained and will be placed in the new forum library as the criteria for the future of this organization under its new charter.

The forum also sent contributions to the Public Action committee which enables them to receive all literature and information on important issues of legislation which affect international peace.

The last meeting of this association was held February 11 in the recreation room, at which time Dr. Werner Neuser talked on the conditions in Germany during the past four months as he has observed them. After a question period, the advisability of the women's forum joining the liberal club was discussed, but no decision was reached.

Debussy Will Be Subject Of A Tempo Discussion

There will be a meeting of the A Tempo club Friday evening at 7:30. Prof. Lewis J. Hathaway will entertain the group at his home.

After the regular meeting a discussion of the works and life of Debussy, a modern French composer, is planned. Part of the program will include piano selections composed by this musician. Jane Liddle '38 will play "Submerged Cathedral". Other compositions will be played by Caroline H. Elliott '37.

At the last meeting of the club, Edward McDowell was the subject of discussion. The club has recently inaugurated a series of programs which are planned to give its members a knowledge of modern composers and their works. Katherine R. Stackel '37 is in charge of programs.

Felix Salmond To Present Recital Of Cello Music Here

Program by Concert Artist Is Next in Series of Entertainments

STUDIED IN LONDON AND ON CONTINENT

Well Known Musician Will Appear March 4 in Mead Chapel

Felix Salmond, cellist, will present the next program in the college entertainment series, Thursday March 4 in Mead chapel.

Mr. Salmond is not only regarded as one of the foremost cellists in the world today, but also as one of the most superb artists in the entire field of music. Born in London of a musical family, he inherited much of his talent and love of music from his parents. His father was a famous British baritone and his mother a well known pianist. He began his cello studies at the Royal college of music in London and later went to Brussells for private instruction under Edouard Jacob.

He is known for the large number of new works which he has introduced to concert audiences, among them the world premiere of Elgar's cello concerto, which he performed in London with the composer directing. His repertoire is of exceptional range and includes many rarely heard compositions.

Since he first came to this country in 1922, Mr. Salmond has not only made extensive concert tours, but has also played with every major orchestra in the country, including the Boston, Philadelphia and New York Philharmonic symphonies. He has made joint appearances with such contemporaries as Paderewski, Josef Hoffmann, Dohnanyi, Mischa Levitzki and Harold Bauer.

The eminent critic, Olin Downes, writing of him recently in the New York Times, referred to him as "a great master of his art and one of the few cellists who dispute that the cello is not a solo instrument."

Speaker from Dartmouth to Lecture on Civil War at Meeting of Liberal Club

Professor Burns of Dartmouth college will speak at the regular meeting of the liberal club Tuesday evening at 7:15 in Hepburn social hall. He will lecture on the present Spanish civil war situation.

Professor Burns has been in close contact with the revolutionary actions on the Spanish peninsula, and is particularly well informed as to the movements of the two forces contesting the right of governmental power.

A formal letter has been written to the women's forum inviting its participation in the meeting Tuesday evening. Robert J. M. Matteson '38 is program co-chairman.

Elmore Jackson, of the Friends' Service Bureau, will speak to the liberal club Tuesday, March 9, on the subject of the Friends' student work camps in the middle west. The following Tuesday, March 16, the club has scheduled the Rev. J. Graydon Brown, of the Rutland Congregational church. The Rev. Mr. Brown, a former Armistice Day speaker here, will address the group on the subject of peace.

THE CARNIVAL IN RETROSPECT

As normal college routine is again established, a glance in retrospect at the record of the 1937 Carnival seems not out of place. Though characterized by snow conditions which have frequently marred past week-ends, Middlebury again may well congratulate itself upon a well-ordered and successful program.

Especially considering the difficult weather conditions, the sports events were carried off generally with a finesse which did credit to the resourcefulness of those in charge. The spirit of sportsmanship and cordiality which characterized the reception of the numerous representatives of other colleges would be mentioned. The treatment accorded visiting teams is in direct contrast to that received by our own team elsewhere recently, and should go far to enhance the reputation of the college in winter sports circles.

Variety and substantial change in the events this year were evident throughout, and it was a departure which repaid the effort involved. High praise is due to those responsible for the outstanding success of "Bavarian Night" and for the Carnival costume ball. Both events were conducted with smoothness and finish, and their popularity should guarantee them a place on next year's program. For sheer beauty and impressiveness the setting for the coronation pageant will always remain vivid, and those responsible may rest assured that their work was fully effective.

The very conservative financial policy followed, while its wisdom may be questionable in some cases, has had the happy result of establishing a reserve upon which future committees may plan more ambitious projects. Possibilities for future progress are by no means exhausted, and a substantial reserve may well inspire the confidence needed for a more extended program in future years.

As for the fourth Winter Carnival passes into history, further development of winter sports at Middlebury, and of the Carnival in particular would seem to depend on two factors. First, the provision of increased physical facilities for winter sports. Use of government funds this spring may in part fill this gap, but there is need for continued expenditure of money and careful planning by trained experts. The college is the natural leader in this work, and we urge that it fully assume the responsibility in both of these fields.

Secondly, within the college there is need for a continuation and substantial expansion of the facilities for coaching and equipment of winter sports teams. An unusually mild winter might well discourage further progress along this line, but the experience of a period of years proves that it is distinctly possible to continue the progress which has been made already in developing a first class ski team.

Within a period of four years winter sports and the Carnival at Middlebury have grown from a mere idea to successfully established institution. It is to be hoped that continued progress may be made in future years through provision of increased physical equipment and facilities for the winter sports team.

DID YOU KNOW??? That the US government plans an increase in steel and copper purchases, despite rise in market prices??? And that the Home Owners Loan corporation must make 160,000 foreclosures on homes during coming fiscal year??? And that Housing Administration, Rural Electrification and Social Security spent over $1,000,000 for publicity last year??? And that the Navy will ask for many additional destroyers???

SPAIN—Franco winning scattered victories. All important nations now have agreed to stop all formation of volunteer troops to go to Spain—meaning help to rebels. Economic sanctions also applied by major countries, mainly for political reasons. Fact is that if Franco does not win decisive victories in next few weeks, his cause is lost, for Hitler and Mussolini are steadily departing from pro-Spanish rebel cause.

******

CHINA—Communist leaders in revolting provinces promise cessation of hostilities. In return, China is supposed to be pledged to stronger action vs. Japs. than before—American and British influences behind this move. Leader Chiang gives well received speech, after offering to resign twice more in last few days. Both sides want peace, but neither knows what it desires. Likely to be playground and sore-spot of Europe—for if some countries are represented, national feelings will predominate. Watch for trouble on this front.

******

POLAND—Plans of Marshall Rydz, follower of Pilsudski, to create new political ideas in Poland, carried. Briefly, new steps include: increase in president's power; putting army to fore in all matters; virtually establishing Catholic church as national religion; toerance of Jews, but at the same time, recognizing that Poles should come first. Means that there will be only one political party in Poland—that which follows government, and that while Jews are given a footing which is almost equal, that the Polish government recognizes there is a racial problem and will help it by legally sanctioning a boycott against Jews. Situation will prove European tinder-box to any country interested.

STRIKES—More trouble looms in industry, regarding strikes. Unions under CIO figure now time is ripe. But if market value of goods does not increase, no profit can be insured vs. plan. Main objection vs. Court plan, raised a week ago, is fact that it would be just as easy for another president to appoint judges of his own political creed as it would be now under proposed act—and such procedure would react badly.

NOTES — Maritime commission is about to issue regulations on minimum wages and working conditions aboard ships—and prices rise accordingly . . . Social Security will cost $225,000,000 next year—providing no addition increase in pay . . . Federal Trade Commission again getting after industries—politics of many Senators and ALL representatives will be decided in few weeks . . . 162 obsolete vessels are in hands of the US Navy, and they wonder what must be done to at least settle program after inception . . .

"SMOKE RINGS"

by Bob and Ed

An investigation of the N. Y. A. setup would reveal a great deal that is decidedly unorthodox. As college becomes as necessary a part of the average education as high school was a generation or two ago some provision for partial governmental support must be made. However, the present method of consigning this function to the regular relief program in a class with P. W. A. ditchdigging is far from satisfactory.

Have you ever thought of Vermonters as outstanding humorists? Neither had we until Professor Davis entertained us at a banquet speech with quaint examples of Champlain region comedy. Tis' a humor of crafty understatement, that reflects strikingly the frugal conservatism of New Englanders.

We have just returned from a sentimental parody on the history of the American frontier, entitled "The Plainsman". If the movies can be diverted from a purely democratic art to the extent of censoring indecencies, why may it not be possible to raise those advertised for grownups at least to the intellectual level of the average high school student?

One of the most interesting typographical errors of the World War era appeared in a St. Louis "Post Dispatch" headline: "We Will Win The War", says President Wilson, "Gold Willing". How little the military-maddened people of that "much-propagandaed" time, realized the cruel truth of this tragically ironical slip.

Those people who complain that college work forces them to neglect their education should remember one small recompense. They are saved from reading such seasonal "greats" as "Gone With The Wind" until these have been consigned to the rubbish heap of overpublicized best sellers.

The late Chief Justice Taft was obsessed with the idea of giving the supreme court a building impressive enough to connote the importance of the government's judicial arm. The marble palace, designed by Cass Gilbert, has now become the storm center of a historic debate. There is no denying that Roosevelt's proposals are "Packing" the court, despite the cleverness of the subterfuge used in presenting his plan. The only question is whether or not the action is not justifiable in view of the overwhelming mandate to the president for procedure along a road of social betterment which the present court has declared abosolutely impassable.

"Swing" rather than "Ski-Heil" characterized the 1937 winter carnival. We heard all the latest swing tunes in the approved manner Thursday night, listened to our own brand at the Bavarian Night, and watched it being created at the Klondike Rush.

Seeing the night life of Paris is not an experience to be discussed at a Sunday school picnic, yet it is a definitely desirable phase of broadening education. The "dives" of the French capital reveal humanity at its lowest ebb: an extreme with which to measure the relative badness of all other immorality.

People love to surrender themselves to following the dictates of duty rather than pleasure. We have devised elaborate rationalizations in order to hide from ourselves this delight in martyrdom and ingenious methods of making ourselves as uncomfortable as possible in our self sacrifice for society.

More than a decade ago the shrieks of a drowning girl stopped the Saturday evening bustle of Middlebury village. Overturned canoe and helpless victim plunged to destruction. Since that tragedy, the college boathouse has been little used. Now that the experience has been mitigated by time, would it not be practicable to use once again, with great caution, the recreational facilities which the river offers?

The paradox of an inferiority complex is that it always goes with the inability to realize personal limitation of character and the honest acceptance of them.

Fellowship Is Open For Study Abroad

Dutton Award for 1937-38 Will Be Made to Senior Of Character and Ability

The Dutton fellowship for foreign study, offered each year to a Middlebury College senior by the Hon. Redfield Proctor, ex-governor of Vermont, has been announced for the year 1937-38.

The fellowship, which may be awarded to a man or a woman as the committee may consider best, covers all necessary expenses for a year of post-graduate study at some institution in Europe which shall be approved by the committee. The student must pursue a line of advanced study in a subject in which he or she has majored in college, but can not use the fellowship for a first year in a professional school, as law, medicine, or divinity. The recipient should have a definite program and be regularly enrolled for classes for at least a larger part of the time in Europe.

The basis of qualifications is similar to that of the Rhodes scholarships: namely, literary and scholastic ability and attainments; qualities of manhood or womanhood, character, public spirit and leadership; and physical vigor, as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways.

"Preferably the recipient should excel in all of the qualities indicated", the terms of the award state, "but in the absence of such an ideal combination he or she must show distinction either of character and personality, or of intellect, over those who show a lower degree of excellence in both.

Participation and interest in extra-curriculum college pursuits offer an essential qualification, but these are not to be considered of equal importance with the other requirements. The greatest emphasis will be placed on intellectual ability and high character. Political success in college activities will not be considered in itself as evidence of leadership. Quoting Mr. Rhodes' own words, "Interest in one's fellows, and instincts for leadership is what Mr. Proctor has in mind."

Applications for the fellowship must be given to Prof. Stephen A. Freeman by March 10. Application blanks may be obtained from the deans' offices, or from Professor Freeman.

Present holders of the Dutton fellowship are Elwood A. Hoxie '36, studying at the London School of Economics, and Louise E. Hubbard '36, studying at the Sorbonne.

Dr. Henry H. Tweedy to Speak at Chapel Sunday

Dr. Henry Hallam Tweedy, professor of practical theology at Yale divinity school, will speak at vespers Sunday.

He obtained his B. A. and M. A. at Yale university. The B. A. degree was conferred upon him in 1891 and his M. A. was the result of three years' study at the student Union theological seminary. Dr. Tweedy studied at the University of Berlin and received his D.D. from Lebanon valley college.

Dr. Tweedy was pastor of the Plymouth church in Utica, N. Y. and also of South church in Bridgeport, Conn. before he took his present position at Yale. He belongs to the Psi Upsilon fraternity. Dr. Tweedy is the joint author of several books including "Moral and Religious Training in School and Home", and "Religion and War".

Dr. Tweedy was also a chapel speaker here last year.

Prof. H. Goddard Owen Will Address English Club Meeting in Forest Hall

A regular meeting of the English club will be held this evening at 7:30 in the recreation room at Forest hall. Prof. H. Goddard Owen will speak concerning conventions in art and literature, using as his topic "Whither Conventions?"

At the last meeting of the English club, which was held at the home of President and Mrs. Moody, Mr. Richard L. Brown addressed the group on "Another Anatomy of Melancholy".

Gary Cooper says:

"It's plain common sense for me to prefer this light smoke"

"A little over a year ago I changed to Luckies because I enjoy the flavor of their tobacco. Ever since, my throat has been in fine shape. As my voice and throat mean so much to me in my business, it's plain common sense for me to prefer this light smoke. So I'm strong for Luckies!"

Gary Cooper

IN PARAMOUNT'S "THE PLAINSMAN" DIRECTED BY CECIL B. DE MILLE

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Cooper verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.

Snow Sculpturing Is Won By KDR's

Fraternity Awarded Prize For Figure of Skier and Panther Carved from Ice

The award for the annual fraternity snow sculpture was won by Kappa Delta Rho with an ice figure of a skier and a panther. A cup was presented to the group Friday evening.

Honorable mention was accredited to Delta Kappa Epsilon whose contribution was a miniature of Mead chapel. The Chi Psi lodge offered a pantomine of two bearded men of the mountain, one helping the other over a ledge. The scene before the Sigma Phi Epsilon house was that of a bob-sled with four occupants on a portion of the track. Beta Kappa's exhibit was the outlines of Mead chapel chisled on a plaque of snow.

The judges of the contest included Prof. John T. Andrews, Prof. Douglas S. Beers, Mr. Edgar J. Wiley and Miss Marion L. Young. Artistry in the sculpturing rather than mechanical ability and the effect that the piece of work gave from the road were responsible for the decision. The annual custom of snow designing by the various fraternities was greatly hampered by the lack of materials and poor weather conditions.

LIBRARY NOTES

by Roland L. Wolcott '39

The Abernethy library bought at an auction in New York this week twenty-six issues of "The Lark", a brown-paper pamphlet edited by Gelet Burgess covering the year 1895-1897. These pamphlets contain many familar quotations and drawings. Perhaps the reference to the 'purple cow' is familar. "I never saw a purple cow, I never hope to see one, but I can tell you anyhow I'd rather see than be one." Burgess was the originator of the 'chewing gum man' also. These pamphlets will be on exhibit in the case within a few days. If the verses don't appeal to you the clever drawings certainly will.

The best sellers of the week as listed by the New York Sunday Tribune are as follows: Fiction,

Gone With the Wind — Margaret Mitchell.

Drums Along the Mohawk—Walter D. Edmonds.

The Late George Apley — John P. Marquand.

Yang and Yin — Alice Tisdale Hobart.

Cities of Refuge—Philip Gibbs.

The Street of the Fishing Cat—Jolan Foldes.

White Banners—Lloyd C. Douglas.

The Sound of Running Feet—Josephine Lawrence.

Non-fiction:

How to Win Friends and Influence People—Dale Carnegie.

An American Doctor's Odyssey—Victor Heiser, M. D.

The Hundred Years—Philip Guedalla.

Inside Europe—John Gunther.

Live Alone and Like It—Marjorie Hillis.

Nine Old Men—Pearson and Allen.

The revised edition of "Inside Europe" by John Gunther is now off the press and the library has already ordered two copies.

President Roosevelt's recent plan to change the Supreme Court has almost doubled the sales of Pearson's and Allen's book, "Nine Old Men". Many news commentators have mentioned the fact that they believed the President secured much of his material from it.

Another book recently secured by the library is "William Morris" by George Bernard Shaw. It is an essay concerning Shaw's friendship for his daughter, May Morris. The English poet is briefly but well portrayed as a sincere middle-class socialist. This same English poet designed the 'Morris Chair" which was so popular in the last generation.

Quintet Will Face Catamount Friday

Panther Five to Play Final Encounter Against Titled Hoopsters at Burlington

Completing a poor season the Blue and White quintet will journey to Burlington to contest the Catamount five in the last game of the state series Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

U. V. M., the most powerful aggregation in the state, has already clinched the state championship in basketball. Tomessetti, forward for the Green and Gold, is high scorer of the state and is ably assisted by Reed on the other forward berth.

Against M. I. T. last Saturday evening the Vermont squad gave one of the best exhibitions of basketball in the state with good pass work and shooting forcing the engineers to drop the encounter 48-23.

The Panther five definitely played the best game of the season so far against St. Michaels last Saturday evening. The club showed much improved cutting and shooting, while the zone defense was more shifty and efficient. Coach Beck will use Chalmers, Philipson, Eriksson, and Ranslow in the forward positions with Anderson playing center. Captain Clonan, Lonergan, Kirk, and Schragle will form the defense against the fast breaking Green and Gold forwards.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By defeating Delta Kappa Epsilon 15-13 Wednesday the KDR basketball team clinched its right to the intramural all-league championship.

Starting February 25 the intramural board track relays will be run off. The semi-finals are set for March 2 and the finals for March 10. An all-campus decathlon competition is planned for March 3-17.

The individual handball tournament has reached the finals. Boehm and Seixas gained the right to face each other for the championship by defeating Buskey and Giller.

In the second period, Wyman netted the second Middlebury counter at 9:11. He was followed immediately by the tying tally, shot by Schlude of Colgate. The final scores came in the last canto when Riley netted at 6:00 to make 3-2 for the Raiders and at 12:05.

Hockey Squad To Meet West Point

Stickmen Team Will Play On Army Rink Tonight In Season's Final Game

The Panther icemen left yesterday to engage West Point today in the last scheduled encounter of the season. The R. P. I. game scheduled for yesterday has been canceled.

With a team in top condition and among the leading clubs in the New England sector, Coach Nash hopes to take the Cadets' measure in the Panther's final clash. The series of Cadet-Panther encounters shows a record of three victories for West Point to Middlebury's two. Last year the Blue and White lost 4-2, won 3-1 in 1935, and lost 3-2 in 1934.

A comparison of this season's scores shows very evenly matched teams. The Cadets lost 2-1 to both New Hampshire and Colgate, but beat Union by a count of 3-2 and downed Hamilton 5-1. The Panther nosed out New Hampshire 2-1, overcame Union 5-4, blanked Hamilton 2-0, but bowed to Colgate 4-2.

Against Army today Robinson, regular Panther goalie, will be in the cage. The first line will be composed of Cullins at left wing, Manchester at right and Phinney skating center ice. Cairns, Westin and Swett will be prepared to fill the defense berths.

New Hampshire First and Dartmouth Second in Winter Sports

Amassing 485.78 points, the University of New Hampshire was winner of the ski meet at the annual winter carnival here last weekend. Garnering 476.54 counters, the Dartmouth B team took second, while excellence in jumping gave Middlebury third position.

Williams, Amherst, and Vermont placed fourth, fifth and sixth respectively. Cornell, Syracuse, Colgate and Norwich followed in that order. The Durham aggregation, leading in the cross country event, downhill and combination, walked off with three firsts.

The cross country race was won by New Hampshire on a new course at Lincoln gap. The Durham club placed Duffy, Craigin and Scudder.

New Hampshire also captured the downhill event on a Lincoln course. Craigin of New Hampshire tied with Cantwell of Williams for first in the plunge. MacLane of Dartmouth was second and Chamberlin also of Dartmouth third.

Meservey of the Hanoverians placed first in the slalom race at Lincoln gap, which was won by the Green, Chamberlin, winner of the event last year, was second.

Good form gave the jumping event on Chipman hill to Middlebury, although none of the Blue and White men made long jumps. Adams of Williams with a record breaking leap of ninety-two feet was well ahead.

Skimen To Depart For St. Margaret's

Middlebury Will Engage in Annual Canadian Contest Against Eastern Colleges

The winter sports team left this noon to participate in the international ski union meet at St. Margaret's Canada.

This annual contest engages in international competition all the leading ski teams of northeastern United States and southern Canada. Among the colleges to be represented are Dartmouth, New Hampshire, Maine, Williams and others. Canada will send several representative teams, among which will be those from McGill, Ottawa, Montreal and St. Patrick's.

Some of the leading amateur skimen will be present at the meet. Captain Chivers of Dartmouth, Olympic contestant, is regarded as the best all-around skiman in New England college competition.

The Blue and White team will be composed of Carter, Cole, Fairchild, Kent, Robinson and Seymour.

The Panther hoopmen avenged their defeat last week by nosing out the Norwich basketeers on the local court, 28-26.

The Beckmen rolled up a total of seven counters before the Cadets succeeded in tallying. The rest of the half, however, was mainly the Horsemen. In the last minute, Chalmers tied the score with a foul and step shot, while Kirk tossed in the winner.

WITH OUR CONTEMPORARIES

New Haven, Conn. — College and university athletic teams should compete only with other institutions which follow a set of standards similar to theirs, suggested Pres. James Rowland Angell of Yale university in his annual report.

Condemning professionalism in college circles, he stated:

"The impression is abroad that the recruiting of high school students for college athletic teams has reached a new peak and that the practice of paying college athletes for their services is now more wide-spread than before.

"I am not in a position to pass judgment on the correctness of these impressions," he said, "but that the procedures mentioned are extremely pernicious, I am obliged to believe. Needless to say, they are most obnoxious where they are surreptitious and carried on in defiance of regulations intended to prevent them.

"The frank defense of subsidizing athletes now so frequently heard, even by college representatives, reflects either a council of dispair or a divergence of ideals and standards so fundamental that the general agreement is not to be hoped for.

"It seems expedient for each institution to cultivate athletic relations only with those whose views and practices substantially coinicide with its own." This will lead to contests as nearly equal as can be arranged and should do much to minimize bad feelings, he stated.

Dealing also with the depression's effects on the national educational system, Dr. Angell's report pointed out that hard times had taught the people that education, instead of belonging to the "young or the privileged few, lies at the very heart of a sound social order."
